DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings have been approved by examiner.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue date.

Authorization for the examiner's amendment was given via RightFax from Peter H. Priest (Reg. No. 30,210) on 18 August 2006 and phone interview on 07 December 2006.

After the examiner's amendment, amended claims will read as follows:

Claim 1:

An offer presentation system for identifying consumers as belonging to a designated category and allowing access to offers by consumers who are members of the designated category, comprising:

Art Unit: 3629

a database of offers accessible through connection by consumer operated computers upon authentication of consumer registration;

an offer presentation module for managing access to the database of offers; and a consumer registration module allowing registration of a consumer for access to the offer presentation module, the consumer registration module allowing registration of a consumer upon submission and authentication of identifying information provided to the consumer by a party who has verified the consumer's membership in the designated category and used to identify the consumer as belonging to the designated category, wherein the consumer registration module is hosted on a server and the server determines which offers are available to the consumer depending on the identifying information associated with the consumer.

Claim 14:

A method for presenting offers to consumers who are members of a designated category, comprising the steps of:

providing a consumer with an identifier upon verification of the consumers membership in the designated category by a party providing the identifier;

receiving in a computer based system the identifier when presented by the consumer;

authenticating the identifier by the computer based system;

upon authentication of the identifier, allowing the consumer to register his identity with the computer based system; and upon completion of registration, allowing the consumer to utilize the computer based system to access a selection of offers, wherein the computer determines which offers are available to the consumer depending on ~~the identifying information~~ the identifier associated with the consumer.

Claim 15:

The method of claim 14, wherein the step of receiving the identifier includes establishing a connection to a consumer computer upon a request by the consumer, presenting an initial login form for display on the consumer computer, the form including one or more fields for input of the identifier by the consumer, and receiving submission of ~~the~~ identifying information in the computer based system.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 – 10 and 12 –20 are allowed.

In claims 1 and 14 as originally numbered, applicant claims system and method which identifies a consumer as belonging to a designated category. The service provider has contracts with each of a plurality of their clients (parties, e.g. lenders). A party provides consumer with an identifier which is required for the consumer to register with the system. The consumer register his or her identity using the identifier which was provided to the consumer by the party (client of the service provider). After successful authentication of the identifier used by the consumer for registration, consumer is allowed to register his/her identity with the service provider system. Upon completion of consumer registration, the system consumer is allowed to utilize the service provider computer system to access selection of offers. Service Provider computer system determine which offers are available to the consumer depending on the identifier associated with the consumer, and, only those selections are accessible by the consumer.
